

Lay Leadership of West Side

Our Elders

West Side is governed by Elders, a diverse group of volunteers chosen from and elected by the congregation for three-year terms. It's a unique part of our Presbyterian heritage and reflects a "bottom-up," rather than "top-down," style of leadership. The following individuals are currently serving as Elders at West Side.

Bill Anderson
Joe Barbuto
Shelagh Brooke
Bill Burdick
Jamie Cella
Christine Cha
Russell Clark
Rev. Tim Dunn

Our Deacons

The Deacons, who also serve for three-year terms, show God's love in action by offering care, compassion and hospitality to West Side members, friends and visitors. They deliver meals, welcome new babies, serve as Sunday-morning greeters and hospitality hosts, visit the sick, help new members "connect" to the church and much more. The following individuals are currently serving as Deacons at West Side.
